Two big feature pictures re also shown, enacted by the fa-nous Hiograph cast, depicting timely ubjects, taken but two weeks ago. Their-exeruciatingly funny comedy is as usual of the most genteel nature. Mr. Rouat is making a big hit with his "Patter" song, entitled, "Take Me Up With You, Dearie," the audience insisting upon hearing it again and again. A delightful attraction will head the big bill for Monday.

Mr. Prince Ell-wood, formerly a well-known ministrel comedian, whose mickname, The Dixie Boy, is known from const to coust, Walter Downing and Augusts Perry Walter Downing and Augusta Perry are well known dramatic people and are the joint authors of this sketch. An exceptionally elever artist is Phil Bennett, who has a wonderful tenor-voice which will be heard to great ad-vantage in his Tyrolean yodling.

Dilla and Tempicton introduce their original spectacular novelty contortion which is something entirely out of the ordinary and must be seen to be appreciated. Special scenery and effects are carried for this act. A pair of neat singers and dancers are the twin Parsons sisters, who, no doubt, will sing and dance their way into immediate favor here, as they have done elsewhere. BE NOT ATTACHED. Be not attached." So runs the great For those who seek, to "Know, and Who sounds the waters of the deeper sea,
Must first draw up his anchor, and go free,

But not for me, that knowledge. I must wait.
Until again, I enter through Earth's gate.
I am not brave enough to sail away To farther ness, and leave this beauteous bay.

Love barnsoled, my anchor lies. And oh, ot lift it, if I could and go All "unattached," to find those Truths, which lie
Far out at sea, beneath a lonely sky. Though peace of heart, and happiness of soul.

Await the seeker at that further goal. With love and all its rapture and its pain.

Close to the shores of earth, I must remain.

Not yet would I relinquish my dream.

To gain possession of the Fact supreme.

I am attached; and well content to stay,
Learning such truths as Love may send my war. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in November Nautilus.

YOUNG AMERICA.

Of course Thanksgiving doesn't mean Just sports for every one— Our parson has to preach that day, And that can't be much fun!

And mother has to sup'rintend The reasting of the turk. While father sharpens carving knives This all means lots of work! But then for me 't's a dandy time;
I simply take my seat
At table, when the disner's on.
'N' est, 'n' est, 'N' EAT.'
